

PERFECT FOR PORSCHE SCENIC BACK ROADS AND LUNCH AT BJ'S

Saturday, July 20, 2019

A classic Santa Barbara Region event: the 75-mile drive on some legendary bends, loops, and curls, perfect for Porsches, followed by a flavorful lunch at BJ's Restaurant & Brewhouse in Valencia. We'll start in Moorpark and head to Fillmore over Grimes Canyon Road, the former path of the old stagecoach route in the Santa Susanna Mountains. From there it will be eastward on CA-126 to San Francisquito Canyon Road, part of the original route of "El Camino Viejo," the historic road from Stockton to Los Angeles in the late 1800s. Next comes Spunky Canyon and Green Valley (cue the "Dueling Banjos"). The final leg to Valencia is Bouquet Canyon Road, a stretch steeped in California ranching history and named from the stories of "El Buque" (Spanish for "the ship") by a French sailor turned settler and vaquero. Lunch in Valencia will feature garden salad, deep-dish pizza, and a nonalcoholic beverage of your choice.

We'll check in at 9:00 a.m. in Moorpark at the Target parking lot, 832 New Los Angeles Avenue, just west of CA-23. Departure time is 9:30 a.m. sharp. Event cost is $30 per person, which includes lunch and activity fee. RSVP now to Doreen Pankow, dpankow@sbcglobal.net or 805-422-8217, and then send your check with the form below.

Please send this form by July 15 with your check for $30 per person made payable to PCA/SBR to:
