Learn about all things concours. Meet at 8:45 a.m. at Aloha Steakhouse, 364 S California St., Ventura, for breakfast and to find out about the different categories and divisions, what to expect from the judges, and how to prep your car. Parking is available in the adjacent parking garage. Following breakfast, hear a tutorial by Tara Konrath about what a concours d'elegance is and what to expect from this exciting event that our club will hold on Sunday, October 12, at the park-like grounds of Camarillo Ranch.

Cost for the breakfast and tutorial is $40/person. Register at msreg.com/sbrconcourstutorial. Questions: contact Tara Konrath, taronkonrath@gmail.com.
